THE FATAL CUP. BY OLIVER PERRY MANLOVE. The cup of wine is red and bright, But never touch it while you live;

Long years ago stood by my side A lovely maiden, Annie Lee; She who had pledged to be my bride, And journey through the world with me.

The lamp-light fell upon her hair,

One hand was fondly clasped in mine, And tremblingly she held it there; While all the rest stood round to see, Not one heart throbbing with a prayer.

Sweet, sparkling, ruby wine; It would never bring me woe. And so I drank, and drank again, Through every pulse I felt it glow Till it was whirling in my brain.

And now there is not one so low,

An outeast in my native land.

Health's Best Defence.

"The weak cateth herbs," says St. Paul, so that eighteen hundred yea's ago the value of medicinal plants was appreciated. In the Old Testument botanical remedies are repeatedly recommended, but in no passage of sacred history is man recommended to swallow calomei, or blue pill, or any other min-eral preparation. The sick were directed to eat herbs to strengthen them, to purify them, to heal them, to restore them. In that day the art of making vegetable extracts was unknown. The herbal medicines were mere infusions.

It was reserved for a laterage to unite the sanitary essencee of tonic, aperient and ontibillous roots, barks and plants, with an active stimulant, and thus secure their rapid diffu-sion through the debilitated or disordered system. The crowning triumph of this effective mode of concentrating and applying the virtues of medicinal vegetables was achieved in the production of Hostetter's Bitters. Never before had a perfectly pure alcoholic stimulant been combined with the expressed juices of the funest specifics of the vegetable kingdom. Never yet, though eighteen hundred years have clapsed since its introduction, has this great iestorative peen equalled. It is taken at all seasons, in all climes, as the most potent saleguard against chidemics, as a protection against all unhealthy exhalations that produce debility or beget disease, as a remain for intermittent or other malarines fixers, as an experizor; as a s v righteme t'r dysbersia : as a general tonic and by a ray's as a gentle, pain-liess aperient: as a blood department as a ner Vic; as a cure billions affect has, as a barm lass anodynes and as the book above of leading and reading and circumstances, such as selemery pursuits, under bodily or mertal equation, har feldy, privation and expo-

Hair Restorer & Zylobalsamum

Are so uniformly grateful and beneficial, that they are with justice called the natural strengtheners of the human hair. They are two entirely separate and distinct preparations, not to be used together at one time.

Mrs. Allen's Hair Restorer Never fails to satisfy the most refined and cultivated. A guarantee goes with every bottle, that it will quickly restore gray or white hair to its original youthful beauty, gloss and color; after its TIN, COPPER and SHEET IROK use a few times the hair will grow thicker and stronger. It will stop its falling and induce a healthy and luxuriant growth. It is an exquisite hair dressing, agreeable, harmless and healthy. Entirely different from most other preparations for the hair, its composition and ingredients are nourishing, giving life and vigor to the Roots. Mrs. Alica' Zylobalsamum This exquisite preparation is free from any sediment, and is a toilet treasure. The urgent want of a simple Hair Dressing, for the youth of both sexes, first induced the manufacture 1870. of the Zylobalsamum, and the sale of it is perfectly immense, not only in this country, but in Europe. EXTRACTS FROM A FEW LETTERS.

" Your Zylobals muin is used by every mem-"Your Zylobals muth is used by every member, young and old, of our family, and we consider it invaluable should any gray hairs appear, we shall try your Hair Restorer, which we hear very highly spoken of."

"Father and mother use your Hair Restorer, and are delighted with it. It soon restored their gray locks to their youthful color, but daughters and son stif find in the Zylobalsumum all their hair requires."
